In a jagged hillside of rare beauty, it is a place of refuge as for only a weekend in the nature or for a longer holiday to better enjoy the full potential of the area.

Quinta da Escudeira, located in the vale de Barris, between the serra do Louro and the serra da Arrábida, is a rural property flagship of Pamela which gets its name in the 18TH century chapel adjacent to the main house. Given its ancestral history and the richness of its natural and built heritage it integrates some of the main touristic routes that cross this county. For those who appreciate the cultural heritage landscape of mountains and sea, nature tours, gastronomy and fine local wines, nothing like enjoying the farm and its surroundings.

The Quinta applies the best environmental practices regarding energy management through the installation of photovoltaic panels for the production and sale of energy and solar thermal panels for hot water heating.

We provide our guests the access to tours and various activities such as donkey rides, boat rides, cycling, hiking the trails of Arrabida and much more.

Palácio de Rio Frio was built at the beginning of this century. At the time it was one of the biggest estates in the country producing mainly wine. The house is decorated with fabulous tiles. They illustrate the rural communities at work, in particular the wine making. In the main lounge, the walls are completely covered with colourful tiles typical of the Ribatejo region. The house is surrounded by a beautiful garden and is standing in the middle of a small wood creating a peaceful atmosphere.
