Respecting its century-old country history, Horta Vermelha has been renovated with care, keeping its uniqueness. You are in the country, but not isolated. You will be in control of your time and your feelings, whatever you decide to do. You may choose to relax in the private comfort of the cottages and surrounding fields. Or you may take a day out, exploring the region. We invite you to take in the richness of the area with independent spirit, at your own pace. Even if you are in a working mood.
